Browser Plug-ins Needed for Most Courses

Specific curricula for college courses may require additional software installations or purchases. Any additional software requirements will be provided in the syllabi for your courses.
Netiquette is the term for common social norms and proper manners needed when communicating and interacting with others in an online environment. Here are some general guidelines for online coursework:

BE VOCAL AND PROMPT:
If you run into any issue, do not hesitate to let the instructor know. Write down what happened to provide the instructor or the Help Desk with clues to figure out what might have gone wrong so they may better resolve the issue. Email the instructor when you have any questions or are unclear about something.

WRITE CLEARLY AND DESCRIBE FULLY:
In face-to-face communication, we can clarify and explain immediately if we find anything missing in what we said or if others do not understand a statement. In online communication, it’s often difficult to tell if such miscommunication occurs. To minimize possible misinterpretation or confusion, it is important to write the message clearly and fully describe the issue.

BE RESPECTFUL:
Whether you are receiving or sending an email, or participating in an online discussion, it is important to be courteous and respectful of others who might have different cultural, language or religious backgrounds. Whenever you disagree with others’ opinions, keep in mind that a good discussion focuses on issues and questions. Others may have points in what they say. Avoid words that might cause personal offense.

USE EMOTICONS ONLY WHERE APPROPRIATE:
In the online environment, tone of voice or facial expressions can’t help conveying or interpreting meanings. Emoticons can be used in conjunction with text to complement or supplement messages, but they may not be familiar to all, so be cautious when using symbols and emoticons. It is better to explain ideas fully and clearly.

USE DISCUSSION BOARDS FOR GROUP DISCUSSION/INFORMATION SHARING:
Discussion boards are intended for sharing messages with the whole class or group. If a message is intended for only one individual and is not of general interest or concern to the class, use email instead to send that person a private message.

CHECK SPELLING AND FOLLOW GRAMMAR RULES:
Be sure to check your spelling and grammar prior to sending your email messages or postings to the discussion board. Avoid writing messages in all capital letters. THIS IS GENERALLY UNDERSTOOD AS SHOUTING!

THINK TWICE BEFORE PUSHING THE “SEND” BUTTON:
Make sure that the message you have just composed is really what you want to say. Think about how the recipient(s) may feel about or interpret the message before you press the “Send” button. It is much easier to adjust or revise before sending than correcting or apologizing afterwards.

LIBRARY SERVICES
The Karl E. Mundt Library’s mission is to support the academic programs and information needs of all Dakota State University students, faculty and staff. One of the chief responsibilities of an academic library is to train undergraduate and graduate students in information literacy so they can find, evaluate and use information to solve problems and to make decisions effectively. Students need such knowledge and skill to function successfully as continuous learners in an ever-changing information world. To successfully meet its mission, the library provides excellent collections, information systems, services, instruction, and staff.

The library provides access to an extensive collection of materials through its online catalog. In addition to its print holdings, the Mundt Library subscribes to numerous electronic indexes and full text research databases, most notably EBSCO’s Academic Search Premier, IEEE Xplore Digital Library, ProQuest Research Library, ABI-Inform, MLA Bibliography and Lexis-Nexis. These databases are authoritative scholarly research tools needed to support DSU’s academic programs. In addition, the library’s collection of e-books continues to grow.

The library’s website provides the on- and off-campus community with direct access to the information resources critical to the various disciplines. Materials held by other libraries are also readily available through the interlibrary loan, so the Mundt Library can quickly meet an individual’s information needs. The library also provides online access to tutorials and other research aids for independent scholars.

The most important and best resource is the library staff. These trained professionals are available to help you find and use the resources you need. Reach them online by using the “Ask DSU Librarians” link on the library’s website. The library has 24-hour access for most resources and services available through its website. Visit the Mundt Library’s homepage to search for information, request services, and learn more about this resource.

DSU WRITING CENTER
The DSU Writing Center & Writing Center Online provide reading and writing support to undergraduate students across a variety of disciplines. From interpreting a course text to developing or finalizing an essay, our learning assistants can assist you at any stage of the process. In addition to one-on-one consultations, the Writing Center offers walk-in hours (on campus) and group workshops in reading, study skills, scholarly formatting, research and a variety of other topics. Distance students may access these resources through the Writing Center Online page in D2L. Our learning assistants are available to meet via video conferencing, D2L Collaborate, or provide asynchronous feedback through a D2L drop box folder. Additional information and resources are available on our D2L page. To set up your student access, please email writingcenter@dsu.edu and a member of the staff will add you to the Writing Center Online and provide additional instructions for submitting your work.

» Exit exams at the undergraduate level (ETS-MFT and D2L exams)

More information about testing services can be found under the testing services website or by contacting (605)256-5101 or testing@dsu.edu.

PROCTOR INFORMATION
Certain DSU courses may require proctoring such as the use of an internet browser that locks down the testing environment and may require a webcam to complete exams/quizzes. Proctoring (via online or face-to-face methods), essentially monitors a student as an exam is being taken and ensures that academic integrity is maintained. Please make sure to check the course syllabus or D2L regarding the specific requirements for proctoring of exams as they may vary by course/faculty. Students will be responsible for any proctoring expenses, if applicable.

Learn more about LockDown Browser and Respondus Monitor.
System Requirements for Respondus Monitor include:

» Windows: 10, 8, 7
» Mac: OS X 10.12 or higher
» iOS: 10.0+ (iPad only). Must have compatible LMS integration.
» Web camera (internal or external) & microphone
» A broadband internet connection

TUTOR.COM

With Tuor.com, you can:

» Connect one-on-one with one of our 3,000+ highly qualified tutors.
» View recordings of your previous sessions.
» Drop off an essay for review and feedback.
» Save your favorite tutors and see their schedule of availability.

- Click on the “help” tab within the D2L course shell and then Click on DSU – Tutor.
- You will be able to sign into Tutor.com using your DSU login credentials.
- Going direct to the tutor.com website will not allow students to sign up for tutoring, they must go to the link through their D2L course shell.

MYDSU PORTAL

An academic advisor is assigned to each student, an example of Dakota State University’s commitment to personalize education. New students are introduced to their advisor through their welcome letter. Subsequently, students should meet with their advisor to get acquainted and discuss career and educational plans. Thereafter, students should stay in contact with their advisor on a regular basis to assess progress and discuss pre-registration procedures for the next semester.

The advisor is the advisee’s primary contact for planning and maintaining an academic program. Information related to curriculum changes, course schedules, grades, etc., is given to the advisor, who in turn informs the student. A student’s questions should be directed to their advisor who will either answer them immediately or find a source for answers and relay them to the student. Advisors may refer students to the appropriate department with questions or concerns as needed. Students with a declared major are assigned an advisor who is a member of the college responsible for that major. A student with a declared major who wishes to change advisors should contact that college’s office for the appropriate paperwork. Students without a declared major are assigned an advisor who is either an instructor in one of their initial courses or a faculty member in the College of Arts and Sciences. Each student is ultimately responsible for his/her own academic schedule and activities. The dean of each college is responsible for maintaining and evaluating the advising system within that academic unit. The provost/vice president for academic affairs is responsible for maintaining and evaluating the overall advising system.

DROPPING COURSES
A student may drop a class and receive tuition and fee refunds anytime during the official drop/add period. Check the academic calendar for semester add/drop dates.

WITHDRAWAL PROCESS
This section is applicable if dropping one or more courses, but not all courses for the semester. A student may withdraw from a class after the drop/add deadline, up until the last day to withdraw in the academic calendar. Students who withdraw during this time period earn a “WD” in the course and do not receive any refund. The “WD” grade does not affect the student’s grade point average. A student is allowed a maximum of six WD grades; after the sixth single-course withdrawal, a grade of “WFL” is assigned, which counts toward the student’s GPA the same as an “F” grade. Students are not allowed to withdraw from specific classes after the published last day to withdraw except under extenuating circumstances and only with the approval of the provost/vice president for academic affairs. Anticipated course failure does not constitute an extenuating circumstance.

For questions or assistance, contact the Office of Online Education at (605) 256-5049 or online@dsu.edu.

WITHDRAWAL FROM THE UNIVERSITY
When a student withdraws from all their courses in any academic term, they also withdraw from the university. If the withdrawal is after the add/drop period, a grade of “WW” will be posted for all courses for the term, and a partial refund may be calculated based on the date of withdrawal. If the withdrawal occurs after courses have begun but before the add/drop deadline for full refund, WD-101 or WD-801 will be posted to the transcript under the term to indicate enrollment. If a student is enrolled at more than one Board of Regents institution, the student must withdraw from all courses at all institutions.

To withdraw from all DSU’s courses, students (undergraduate and graduate) must complete the online withdrawal form. The Registrar’s Office will coordinate the notification process so that all appropriate offices and persons are made aware of the withdrawal.

The effective date of withdrawal is the date the student initiates the withdrawal process officially, either verbally or in writing, with the appropriate office. Failure to officially withdraw will result in failing grades in all courses, forfeiture of any possible refund of charges, and will impact federal financial aid eligibility. Additionally, a student is withdrawn from the university if classes have begun, and the university has administratively suspended a student for reasons such as non-payment of tuition and fees, disciplinary sanctions, etc.

Dates for withdrawal are found on the Academic Calendar located here on the DSU website.
FINANCIAL AID

Dakota State University makes every effort to help eligible students secure the finances needed to begin and complete their college education. The university provides financial aid assistance to qualifying students in the form of scholarships, grants, loans, and work study opportunities. In addition, all sources of student financial aid (agency, private, federal, state, and institutional) are coordinated through the Financial Aid Office. Any funding in addition to the student and family contribution is considered financial aid and is processed through this DSU office.

For a complete listing of financial aid programs, policies, and alternative financing options, visit the MyDSU Portal or the DSU website. Application information, eligibility requirements, loan counseling, and links to current loan information can be accessed via the MyDSU Portal. Eligibility is determined annually based on the results of the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), DSU scholarship application, student date of application and student financial aid satisfactory academic progress. Electronic applications for institutional, federal aid and other aid sources may be done through links found online.

Students may access consumer information required for DSU to participate in federal aid programs through this office such as Student Right to Know, Placement Statistics, Crime Report, Equity in Athletics and average graduate loan debt information. Professional staff are available to assist students in determining educational funding options and understanding available programs. If students have a change in their family situation during the school year, they should contact the Financial Aid Office regarding special circumstance consideration.

PAYING FOR TUITION/FEES

Dakota State University offers online billing and payment through SDePay. Details can be found on the student portal at MyDSU>Financial>Pay for College/Tuition & Fees or on the website. Students may also contact the DSU Cashier’s Office at Cashier@dsu.edu or 605-256-5271.

ACADEMIC APPEALS/FREEDOM IN LEARNING

Administrative offices of the university have the responsibility and authority to make decisions within their respective areas of jurisdiction. In the case of a concern or complaint regarding an academic matter, a student should first discuss the concern with the official directly responsible for the area involved (see Appealing Academic or Administrative Decisions policy and/or the Academic Integrity policy).

Students are responsible for learning the content of any course of study in which they are enrolled. Under the Board of Regents and Dakota State University policy, student academic performance shall be evaluated solely on an academic basis and students should be free to take reasoned exceptions to the data or views offered in any course of study. Students who believe that an academic evaluation is unrelated to academic standards but is instead related to judgment of their opinion or conduct should contact the dean of the college which offers the class to initiate a review of the evaluation.

DISABILITY SERVICES

To receive accommodations for a disability at DSU, students must:
1. Contact the Disability Services Office by:
   » Calling 605-256-5121,
   » Emailing success.center@dsu.edu
   » Completing the Disability Request Form or » Returning the Disability Notification card that comes with our registration materials.

2. Provide documentation of the disability. Students requesting accommodation need to forward copies of their testing/diagnosis records to DSU’s Disability Services Office. Please call 605-256-5121 for details on what the records should include.

3. Mail the information to Disability Services, 820 N. Washington Ave., Madison, SD 57042 or fax 605-256-5854.

It is very important that students request accommodation and submit their documentation as soon as possible. Requests for accommodation must be made every semester the student registers for classes. The Americans with Disabilities Act and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act are very clear in stating that disability-related information is to be treated with strict confidentiality.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Dakota State University is committed to providing students with a quality education. The faculty of DSU will not tolerate academic dishonesty in any form. The Academic Integrity Board policy clarifies the definition of academic dishonesty, the student’s rights, and the faculties’ rights and responsibilities to prohibit, limit and censure instances of academic dishonesty.

DIVERSITY SERVICES

Diversity is the key to excellence in education. DSU is committed to enriching the lives of our students, faculty and staff by providing a diverse campus where the exchange of ideas, knowledge and perspectives is an active part of learning. The goal of Diversity Services is to make your time at DSU a great experience by learning about yourself and others. We can assist you in many ways from admissions advice and registration help to scholarship identification.
The South Dakota Board of Regents, on behalf of the State of South Dakota, has entered into an agreement to participate in the National Council for State Authorization Reciprocity Agreements (NC-SARA). South Dakota’s agreement is through the Western Interstate Commission for Higher Education (WICHE), which is one of the four regional education compacts who administer SARA.

SDBOR has been designed by the state as the portal agency for SD-SARA and administers SARA within South Dakota. SDBOR’s responsibilities as a portal agency include the following: accepting, reviewing, and submitting applications from South Dakota institutions wishing to participate in SARA; reviewing compliance; serving as liaison with SARA administrators from other states; and accepting and investigating student complaints.

NC-SARA establishes a state-level reciprocity process that supports the nation in its efforts to increase the educational attainment of its people by making state authorization more efficient, effective, and uniform. Membership in NC-SARA is voluntary for both states and institutions. Once a state becomes a member of NC-SARA, all degree-granting post-secondary institutions from all sectors (public colleges and universities as well as non-profit and for-profit independent institutions) accredited by an agency recognized by the U.S. Secretary of Education are eligible to participate in SARA. Institutions that participate in SARA are authorized in all states who are members of NC-SARA.

STUDENT COMPLAINTS & CONCERNS

Enrolled students can submit non-academic complaints. The complaints can be submitted electronically using the Concerns and Feedback form. Dakota State University seeks to resolve student concerns and complaints in a fair and prompt manner. Submissions will be processed and reviewed.

Notification of Complaint Process for Program Integrity

Complaints must first be processed through the institution’s own procedures for resolution of complaints. Individual complaints can be submitted electronically using DSU Concerns and Feedback form. The submission will be processed and reviewed.

Any person may file a complaint with the Executive Director of the South Dakota Board of Regents to obtain a review and appropriate action on allegations that an institution governed by the Board:

- Violated South Dakota consumer protection laws.
- Engaged in fraud or false advertising.
- Violated South Dakota laws relating to the licensure of post-secondary institutions or programs.
- Failed to provide an educational program meeting contemporary standards for content and rigor.
- Failed to assign qualified instructors; or
- Violated one or more accreditation requirements.

Where the institution has not already considered and acted upon the complaint, the Executive Director will refer the matter to the institutional president for review and action. If the complainant challenges an institutional disposition of the complaint, the Executive Director will provide for an independent review and disposition of the allegations.
SARA Complaint Procedures for Out-of-State Students
Complaints must first be processed through DSU’s procedures for resolution of complaints. The SD-SARA administrator will verify that all complaints have been received and processed by the institution and will not consider complaints that have not gone through the institutional complaint process. The complaint procedures for SD-SARA can be found in Section 7 of SDBOR SARA Policy 1:29.

Complaints to the SD-SARA administrator must specify:
1. The basis for believing that the institutional action is inconsistent with the accreditation or SARA requirements.

3. If the complainant alleges that institutional documents were misleading, the request should contain the portions of the catalog, letters or email exchanged between the complainant and the institution and should identify with specific statements that the complainant found to be misleading and what the complainant understood the statements to mean.

University Withdrawal – When a student withdraws from all their courses in any academic term, they also withdraw from the University. If a student is enrolled at more than one Board of Regents institution, the student must withdraw from all courses at all institutions.

To withdraw from all DSU’s courses, students (undergraduate and graduate) must complete the online withdrawal form. The Registrar’s Office will coordinate the notification process so that all appropriate offices and persons are made aware of the withdrawal.

The effective date of withdrawal is the date such a request is initiated. Failure to officially withdraw will result in failing grades for all courses in which the student was enrolled.

Students Who Receive Federal Title IV Financial Aid (R2T4 Policy)

General Information: The U.S. Department of Education requires institutions to apply the Return to Title IV Funds policy for students withdrawing from a university who receive Title IV financial aid. Title IV funds include the following financial aid programs: Direct Stafford Loans, Direct PLUS Loans, Federal Perkins Loans, Federal Pell Grants, Iraq and Afghanistan Service Grants, TEACH Grants, Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants, and other Title IV assistance. The requirements for Title IV program funds when withdrawing are separate from the DSU refund policy. Therefore, the student may still owe funds to the school to cover unpaid institutional charges. DSU may also charge the student for any Title IV program funds that were required to be returned that were initially used to cover institutional charges.

A student who withdraws after the 60% point of a semester is entitled to retain all Title IV aid for that semester. However, if the student withdraws prior to the 60% point of the term, unearned Title IV funds as determined by the federal policy must be returned to the various programs. These funds must be returned even if the University provides no refund to the student. This means the student could owe the University and/or the U.S. Department of Education a significant amount of money.

Post Withdrawal Disbursement: If the student did not receive all of the funds that were earned prior to withdrawing, a post-withdrawal disbursement may be due. If the post-withdrawal disbursement includes loan funds, the student must give permission before the funds can be disbursed. DSU may automatically use all or a portion of the post-withdrawal disbursement of grant funds for tuition, fees, and room and board charges. Permission is required to use the post-withdrawal grant disbursement for all other school charges. Students will be notified of post-withdrawal disbursement eligibility within 30 days of the date of withdrawal determination.

Determining Earned Aid: Title IV financial aid is earned by the calendar day, not class day. This includes weekends, holidays, and breaks of less than five consecutive days. The University is required to determine the amount of Title IV aid the withdrawing student has earned and then either disburse any additional funds the student may be entitled to up to the amount earned or return funds in excess of the amount earned which the student has already received. If an amount to be returned is a federal program is determined, then a further calculation is made to determine how much of the amount needs to be returned by the University and how much, if any, needs to be returned by the student. For example: If $1,000 in federal aid is disbursed, and the student withdraws at the 30% point of the term, $700 of the aid is unearned and needs to be returned to the identified aid program. Order of Aid to be Returned: The amount to be returned is distributed in a specified order – Unsubsidized Stafford Loan, Subsidized Stafford Loan, Perkins Loan, PLUS Loan, Pell Grant, SEOG, TEACH Grant, Iraq & Afghanistan Service Grant, other Title IV assistance, and last to the student.

Grant Overpayment: Any amount of unearned grant funds that the student must return is called an overpayment. The maximum amount of a grant overpayment the student must repay is half of the grant funds that were received or scheduled to receive. The student does not have to repay a grant overpayment if the original amount of the overpayment is $50 or less. Arrangements must be made with DSU or the Department of Education to return the unearned grant funds. The student will be notified of any grant overpayment within 30 days of the date the school determined the student withdrew.

Timeframe for Returning Title IV Aid: The Return of Title IV Funds calculation will occur as soon as possible but no later than 45 days after the date the University determined the student withdrew.

Notification to Student: Once the Return to Title IV Funds calculation has occurred, the DSU Business Office will notify the student of the results of the calculation, the aid that was returned, and any outstanding balance now due to the institution as a result. The University strongly encourages students and parents to consult with the Financial Aid Office to determine the financial impact of withdrawing before making a final decision.

Unofficial withdrawals (all failing unearned grades): Title IV aid recipients who fail to withdraw but stop attending class are considered unofficial withdrawals. Either the last day of academically related activity or mid-point of the term will be used to determine the amount of Title IV assistance that must be returned. If the student stopped attending prior to the 60% point of the term, the student will be billed for the outstanding charges as a result of the Return of Title IV funds. The last date of attendance for unofficial withdrawals is calculated within 30 days of determining the student was an unofficial withdrawal and the Return of Title IV funds is processed within 45 days.
