Article V
Section 3: Subsection XI

XI. The President shall have the ability to make an executive order
   I. Executive orders can not be made in place of Resolutions, Bylaw Amendments, or Constitution Revisions.
   II. Executive orders may be repealed or amended by the Senate with a ⅔ vote.
   III. The President has the ability to repeal or amend any existing Executive Order.
   IV. Executive Orders shall remain in effect until repealed by the President or the Senate.

Article III
Section 4: Subsection I

Adopted: 03/15/2019

Jacob Williams - President, Student Association Senate, Dakota State University