Date: 2/5/2019

Senate Constitution Amendment #23
Introduced by: Ivy Oeltjenbruns, Administrative Assistant
Supported by: Nathan Harmer

Article III
Section 3: Sessions
Section 4: Absences & Proxies
Section 5: Legislation

Article X
I. The Senate shall have the power to adopt and amend bylaws following the procedure laid out in Article III, Section 5, Subsection V.

Article XI
I. The Senate shall have the power to amend the Constitution following the procedure laid out in Article III, Section 5, Subsection VI.

Article V
Section 3:
III. Upon equal division of the Senate on any measure, the President shall exercise voting rights. The President shall not vote under any other matters during a Senate session, as defined in Article III, Section 4, Subsection II

Section 6: Powers and Duties of the Public Relations Officer
Changes for Constitutional Amendment #04

Section 7: Powers and Duties of Finance Chair

Adopted: 03/15/2019

[Jacob Williams - President, Student Association Senate, Dakota State University]