II. Permanent Copy
A. The Constitution shall be prepared in permanent form and kept on file in the Senate office and shall be available to the student body.
Section 4: Sessions

I. Session

A. All sessions must be held on Dakota State University Campus.
B. Speaking Privileges: During any session, any individual may speak when recognized by the President unless a majority vote of the Senate closes the gallery. The President shall have the ability to enact free discussion among Senators.
C. Quorum: A quorum of the voting members must be present for Senate business to be transacted. Quorum shall consist of two-thirds of the currently filled voting member positions in the Senate. Proxies shall not be counted in determining a quorum.
D. Agenda: The Senate shall approve the agenda provided by the President with a majority vote. Following approval, a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Senate may change the agenda.
F. Minutes: Refer to Bylaw 3.4.1.
G. In the event the President is not present at a session, the line of succession for acting chairperson shall follow Vice President, Public Relations Chair, Administrative Assistant.

II. Types of Sessions

A. Regular Sessions: The Senate shall assemble no less than twice per month during the course of the academic calendar year as established by the South Dakota Board of Regents. Sessions may be cancelled by majority vote of the Senate or, in the case of an emergency, by the President. Exceptions to this rule may be made for months where the semester begins or ends within that month.
B. Special Sessions: The President may call Special sessions. Any Senator may call a special session upon petition of one-third (1/3) of the Senate. This petition shall then be delivered to the President. The President must provide twenty-four (24) hours’ notice of any special sessions to all Senators. Discussion will be limited to the topics disclosed in the notice.
C. Closed Session: Any session of the Senate or any of its committees may retire into closed session by a majority vote of the members present. All individuals deemed pertinent to a closed session shall be permitted to remain at the session by majority vote of the closed session voting members. Minutes shall not be recorded within a closed session. Any individual present may not disclose any details, not publicized by the Senate, outside of a closed session. A majority vote of the Senate may publicize actions of the closed session.

Section 5: Absences & Proxies

I. Absences
   A. Acceptable absences are given for Senate sessions as long as they meet the requirements laid out in Bylaw 3.5.1.
   B. The absences form shall be due to the Administrative Assistant filled out no less than three hours prior to the specified session.

II. Proxies
   A. Any Senator may establish a proxy for their vote in a session or committee meeting. This position must be filled by a Senator excluding the President.
   B. Upon establishment of a proxy, the Administrative Assistant shall receive the absences form with the proxy section filled out no less than three hours prior to the specified session. The President or Administrative Assistant shall approve all proxy requests. For approval of the proxy, the absences must be an acceptable absence following the requirements set forth in Bylaw 3.5.1.
   C. No proxy representative may control more than two votes simultaneously.
   D. The proxy representative must be aware of the terms in which the absent Senator is willing to maintain their vote on all agenda items in case of an amendment to the original bill, amendment, budget request, etc.

Section 6: Legislation

I. Legislation
   A. No legislative act that violates the bylaws or Constitution of the Senate shall be considered.
   B. All legislation shall be recorded as a Constitution Revision, Bylaw, or a Resolution.

II. Bylaw
   A. Any formal action taken by the Senate that affects the operation of the Senate shall be known as a Bylaw.
   B. A Bylaw, until altered by subsequent acts of the Senate, is a legislative act that binds both current and future legislative action.

III. Resolution
   A. Any act taken by the Senate of a temporary character or for the purpose of requesting or commending action by organizations or persons outside the authority of the Senate.
IV. Constitution Revision
   A. Any formal action taken by the Senate to amend or change the constitution of the Senate shall be known as a Constitution Revision.

V. Bylaw & Resolution Approval Process
   A. Introduction
      1. All Bylaws & Resolutions brought before the Senate must be sponsored by at least one Senator and submitted to the Administrative Assistant no less than three (3) days prior to a session.
      2. The Senate can consider to add a Resolution to the agenda of a session that was not submitted in the time frame above in a session with a unanimous vote of the senate.
   B. First Reading
      1. All Bylaws & Resolutions shall first be presented to the Senate and then assigned to the appropriate committee by the Vice-President upon motion to continue the legislative process. If an emergency is declared and the Senate approves the Resolution with a ⅔ majority vote, a Resolution can skip committee action and second reading and go straight to final disposition. If an emergency is declared, it will change the number of days the President has to veto from (7) days to (2) days. (Article III Subsection 6.F.1)
   C. Committee Action
      1. The Constitution Revision Committee for a Bylaw shall then meet and deliberate on the Bylaw prior to the second reading and shall pass it along to the full Senate as “Pass”, “Do Not Pass”, or “Without Recommendation”.
      2. For a Resolution, the Senate shall form a committee if there is no present committee for the Resolution. The committee shall then meet and deliberate on Resolution prior to the second reading and shall pass it along to the full Senate as “Pass”, “Do Not Pass”, or “Without Recommendation”.
   D. Second Reading
      1. All Bylaws & Resolutions shall be given consideration at a regular session of the Senate. If a measure is amended in committee, the Senate shall consider the amended version.
   E. Final Disposition
      1. All Bylaws & Resolutions shall become effective upon a majority vote of those Senators present and the signature of the President. Final disposition of all Bylaws & Resolutions must be conducted with a roll call vote with those voting for and against recorded in the minutes. In the event the President refuses to sign the Bylaw or Resolution approved by a majority vote of the Senate, it is considered a Presidential veto.

F. Presidential Veto
1. The President shall have veto power over all passed Bylaws and Resolutions. The President will retain the right to veto legislation in its entirety. Should the President fail to veto legislation within seven (7) days of passage, it shall be considered passed. The President shall provide a written statement of the reason(s) in the event of a veto. If the Senate has declared an emergency, then the number of days the president has to veto a Resolution will change to (2) days after the passage of the Resolution.

G. Veto Override
1. The Senate may override a veto by a two-thirds (2/3) vote.

H. Ex Post Facto
1. No amendment to the Bylaws that affects the number or qualifications of Senators shall take effect until the following term.
2. All other Bylaws passed shall, unless an emergency is declared by a two-thirds (2/3) majority roll call vote of the Senate and agreed to by the Advisor, take effect at the beginning of the next term.

VI. Constitution Revision Approval Process

A. Introduction
1. All Constitution Revisions shall be brought before the Senate by the Senator sponsoring the Constitution Revision.
2. The Student Body may bring forth Constitution Revision through the initiative process following Article VIII, Subsection 2.

B. First Reading
1. The Senator sponsoring the Constitution Revision shall bring it to the Senate where it will be referred to the Constitution Revision Committee.

C. Committee Action
1. The committee shall meet and deliberate on the Constitution Revision prior to the second reading and shall pass it along to the full Senate as “Pass”, “Do Not Pass”, or “Without Recommendation”. The committee can also bring forth an amendment for the Constitution Revision.

D. Second Reading
1. The Constitution Revision shall be given consideration at a regular session of the Senate. If a measure is amended in committee, the Senate shall consider the amended version. If the Constitution
Revision is amended by the Senate, it must return to Committee Action.

E. Comment Period
   1. Once the Constitution Revision has passed the Second Reading, it will go to a public comment period for two weeks. Once the Comment Period has closed, the Committee shall consider comments made regarding the Constitution Revision at that time.
   2. If the committee feels it necessary, they may reopen the revision to comment period.

F. Third Reading
   1. The Committee shall bring the Constitution Revision up to the Senate for the Third Reading where the Senate may/can move to vote on the Constitution Revision or to send it back to the Constitution Revision Committee and brought back at the following session for the Third Reading.

G. Final Disposition
   1. All Constitutional Revision shall become effective upon a three/fourths (¾) vote of the Senate. Final disposition of all Constitution Revision must be conducted with a roll call vote with those voting for and against recorded in the minutes.

H. Ex Post Facto
   1. No Constitution Revisions that affect the number or qualifications of Senators shall take effect until the next general election. All other Constitution Revisions passed shall, unless an emergency is declared by a two-thirds (2/3) majority roll call vote of the Senate and agreed to by the Advisor, take effect at the beginning of the next term.
Article IV
Vacancies

I. Vacancy
   A. A vacancy is a permanent absence from a position.

II. Vacancy In The Office of the Senate President
   A. In the event of a vacancy occurring in the Office of the Senate President, the Vice President shall immediately fill the vacancy and serve for the remainder of the term as President and a new Vice President will be elected following Article VI.

III. Vacancies In Other Positions
   A. All other vacancies occurring in the Senate after the Fall election and one calendar month before the Spring election shall follow the following procedure.
   B. The Election Committee shall open the position to the student body and receive petitions for one week.
   C. The Election Committee will interview all applicants that are eligible to be senators under Article VI, Section 7. The Election Committee will then choose two applicants for each open position to bring to the Senate.
   D. The Senate, at their next session, will interview both applicants that the election committee has brought to the Senate. The Senate will then have a Plurality Vote on the applicants with ties being broken by the President.

IV. Committee Vacancies
   A. Vacancies occurring in any committee shall be filled by appointment by the Vice President subject to confirmation by two-thirds (2/3) of the Senate.

V. Simultaneous Office of the President and Vice President Vacancies
   A. If at any time, the offices of the President and Vice President become vacant simultaneously, the Advisor shall chair the Senate and hold a majority vote to immediately appoint a temporary chairman to officiate until a special election can be held following Article VI.

   1. Petitions for all positions open shall be due on a date set by the election committee.
D. If the committee finds a petition to be invalid, they shall immediately notify the candidate who shall then have up to one week to make any necessary corrections.

Section 4: Voting
I. Voting Rights
A. All members of the Student Body at the time of the election shall be eligible to vote for the Senate candidates.

II. Plurality Vote
A. Senate candidates that receive the highest number of votes shall be declared elected. Alternates shall be those candidates who receive the highest number of votes but do not win a seat.

III. Ties
A. Ties in Senate elections shall be broken at the first session of the new Senate at a special session called and chaired by the current President. If the current President is seeking the office in question, it will be chaired by the current Advisor. The Chair shall not vote unless the Senate is equally divided.

Section 5: Public Relations Chair and Administrative Assistant
I. Election Process for Spring Election
A. The Public Relations Chair and Administrative Assistant shall not be on the ballot. With the addition of two general senators on the ballot, the President on the third week of April shall nominate a General Senator for each position. The Senate will then confirm or deny that nomination for the position with a 2/3 majority vote.
Section 6: Term of Office

I. All voting members of the Senate shall hold office for a single term beginning when they take office and ending when the next term of elected students take office on the second Wednesday of April at the normally scheduled session. The previous Executive Council shall remain on Senate for one week following the election of the new Executive Council to assist in the transition process. The transition process is defined in the Transition Document. Refer to Bylaw 3.6.1 for the management and implementation of this document.

II. During the transition process, the previous Executive Council shall have no voting powers in any matters of the Senate, unless they are re-elected to a position within the Senate.

   E. Available to serve a full term in office.
   F. Must complete the application process.
   G. Candidates must be full-time on-campus students during the election and while serving the term in office.

   1. Exceptions are made for students who will no longer meet full-time requirements due to graduation.
   H. No former Senator who has been removed from their position may hold a Senate seat again unless pardoned. A pardon requires sponsorship of no fewer than three (3) Senators, endorsement by a majority of the Executive Council, and confirmation by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Senate.

Section 8: Officer Eligibility

I. Any members of the Student Senate who meet the requirements put forth in the above section are eligible for candidacy for Senate Officer with two differences. First, officers must have a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or greater at the time of election. Second, the Presidential and Vice-Presidential candidates must have been members of the Senate for one term prior to running for office or are currently serving their first term.
Article VII

Impeachment and Removal

Section 1: Authority
I. The Senate has the power to expel any executive officer, Senator, or alternate from office after a proper hearing has been held with the approval of two-thirds (2/3) of all Senators.
II. During, and only during, the consideration of all matters dealing with a formal complaint, the accused will lose all powers, rights, and duties of his or her office. The accused shall still have the right to speak on his or her behalf. This shall be called impeachment.

Section 2: Impeachment
I. Power
   A. The Article VII Committee shall have the power of impeachment. It shall consider all formal complaints made against any Senator.
   B. The Article VII Committee shall be formed no later than the first week of May following Bylaw 7.2.1. If a member of the committee has a complaint brought against them then they shall immediately step down from the committee until the matter has been resolved.
II. Impeachable Offense
   A. Inappropriate conduct (including but not limited to threats, verbal abuse, harassment, demagogue, theft, vandalism, libel, or slander) while representing the Student Body in any official capacity.
   B. Intentional misleading of school officials or any Student Body member regarding official University or Senate business.
   C. Misuse, misappropriation, or theft of Student Senate resources.
   D. Intentional violation of any provision of this Constitution, the bylaws of the Senate, or the fiscal guidelines.
   E. Misuse of power or privilege granted by office.
   F. Failure to comply with an executive order as set by the President.
III. Requirements for Formal Complaints
   A. The complaint must state the specific party or individual in violation.
   B. The complaint must state the organization or individual presenting the claim.
   C. The complaint must be typewritten/word processed and coherent.
D. A specific violation of Article VII, Section 2, Subsection II, must be addressed.
E. The complaint must completely and fully describe the instance(s) of offense(s) allegedly committed.
F. Any formal complaint shall be filed with the Article VII Committee.

IV. Indictment
   A. Within two (2) school days, the Article VII Committee shall deliver a copy of the formal complaint to the accused.
   B. Within one (1) school week of receiving the formal complaint, the committee shall meet, and using whatever measures it deems necessary, determine by a majority vote if sufficient evidence exists to hold an impeachment hearing. If the committee concludes that enough evidence exists, the accused shall be impeached.
   C. If the committee concludes that enough evidence does not exist, the matter shall be declared closed with no hearing held unless the Senate moves to bring the impeachment hearing to the Senate with the endorsement of one third (⅓) of the Senate.

Section 3: Trial Process
I. All impeachment hearings shall be held in an open session before the full Senate in a special session.
II. The presiding chairperson shall be the highest-ranking elected Officer that is not being impeached. In the event that no Officer is willing or eligible to serve as presiding chairperson the Advisor shall appoint a chairperson.
III. The presiding officer of the Senate shall set the date of the special session for a day no later than two (2) school weeks after impeachment.
IV. A copy of the formal complaint shall be given to each Senator at least two (2) days before the hearing.
V. The accuser and the accused shall, in turn, present their cases and witnesses. Each side shall have the opportunity to cross-examine witnesses and make a closing argument.
VI. After closing arguments, the Senate shall retire into closed session. The Senate may recall and question any person involved in the hearing. After discussion, the Senate shall vote by secret ballot.
VII. The presiding officer shall announce the vote totals and the verdict, and it shall be recorded in the minutes. If the verdict is guilty, the presiding officer shall immediately declare the office of the accused vacant. If the verdict is not guilty, the matter shall be declared closed.
Section 4: Removal by Unacceptable Absence

I. Should a Senator have two (2) unacceptable absences (defined as missing roll call at the beginning of a Senate session) or failure to complete “office hours” as set forth by the President, that Senator shall receive a written warning from the President on behalf of the Senate as a whole.

II. Following this warning, should the Senator have another unacceptable absence from either a Senate session or “office hours”, as the case may be, that Senator shall then be considered to have vacated his or her seat unless a special dispensation, conditional or unconditional, is granted by a majority vote of the Senate.
Article VIII

Initiative, Referendum, And Recall

Section 1: Initiative
I. The Student Body may initiate legislation and recalls by presenting to the Senate a petition that calls for a vote on the specific legislation or recall.

Section 2: Referendum
I. All legislation petitions must contain signatures of at least five (5) percent of the Student Body. If the petition meets the requirements it will then follow the methods set out in Article 3.

Section 3: Recall
I. Any voting member of the Senate is subject to recall upon submission of a petition calling for that action and no less than fifteen (15) percent of the members of the proper constituency.
II. Any member of the Senate may be subject to recall no sooner than 30 days after assuming the duties of his or her office.
III. When a recall petition has been duly signed, it will be presented to the Senate, at which time the President shall call a special vote to be held between the fifth and the tenth day after such petition has been presented.
IV. Should a majority vote cast at said election accept the petition, the office of the Senate member recalled shall be declared vacant. This action is not vetoable by the President.

Section 4: Special Votes
I. All special votes shall be held at most two weeks after the petitions have been received. If there is no school at that time, the vote shall be held the next school week.
Article IX

Bill of Rights

I. The Senate recognizes and upholds both the University Policies and Regulations and the Student Conduct Code contained within the University Student Handbook.
Article X

Bylaws

I. The Senate shall have the power to adopt and amend bylaws following the procedure laid out in Article III, Section 6, Subsection V.

II. Permanent Copy
   A. All bylaws shall be prepared in permanent form and kept on file in the Senate office and shall be available to the student body.
Article XI

Amendments

I. The Senate shall have the power to amend the Constitution following the procedure laid out in Article III, Section 6, Subsection VI.
Article XII

Committees

Section 1: Senate Committees

I. All committees are responsible to and shall report to the Vice President by filing their minutes with the Administrative Assistant within a week after each meeting.

II. The Recording Secretary shall be responsible for recording the minutes of the Senate committee’s meetings. If the Recording Secretary is not present, the chairperson shall appoint a member of the committee to record the minutes.

III. Standing Committees

   A. The following Committees shall be formed no later than the first week of May following their respected bylaws.
      1. Constitution Revision Committee Bylaw 3.6.1
      2. Elections Committee Bylaw 6.1.1
      3. Public Relations Committee Bylaw 5.7.1
