Athletic Committee

OFFICE OF RECORD: President

ISSUED BY: President

APPROVED BY: Doug Knowlton, 04-08-00

EFFECTIVE DATE:07/09/04

(Revised 9/29/10)

Policy

Institutional control of intercollegiate athletics rests with and is exercised by the President of the University. In this capacity the President is ultimately responsible for ensuring that Dakota State University's athletic policies and programs are in compliance with the rules and regulations of the institution's National and Conference affiliations. The Athletic Director, who is accountable to the President, exercises authority for the administration and management of intercollegiate athletic programs.

Procedure

The principal function of the Athletic Committee is to advise the Dakota State University administration on all major decisions affecting the administration of the Athletic Department. The Athletic Committee shall recommend policy on intercollegiate athletics to the Athletic Director and to the President. Specific duties of the Athletic Committee include, but are not limited to:

1. Establishing, reviewing, and updating a 5-year strategic plan for the Athletic Department based on goals, suggestions, and feedback from Athletic Committee members, Athletic Director, head coaches, and other related parties.
2. Serving on the search and screen committee for all Athletic Department hires including, but not limited to: Athletic Director, related athletic administrative positions, and head coaches. The President shall appoint one or more members of the Athletic Committee for each search and screen committee.

3. Monitoring the recruitment of student athletes for the impact on ideal team roster size and Title IX implications. Head coaches will provide recruiting and student-athlete commitment numbers to the committee as it relates to roster size only.
4. Reviewing athletic schedules for opportunities to establish promotional events to increase attendance. The Athletic Committee may also assist in identifying opportunities to schedule contests as a guaranteed revenue source.
5. Updating Athletic Handbook annually for athletic staff and student athlete policies.
